

BOB YOUNG

Chief of Staff

Bob Young has been with United Way of Greater Charlotte for six years now and has been serving as Chief of Staff since July 2022. In his role, Bob assists the CEO with management of the Board of Directors, various committees and the executive team. Bob also works on cross-departmental initiatives.

Before his promotion to Chief of Staff, Bob started with United Way as Director of Volunteer Strategy and Planning from 2017-2020 and served as Director of Community Impact from 2020-2022.

Prior to his time at United Way, Bob worked at the nonprofit Hands On Charlotte, which United Way absorbed in 2017. In 13 years at Hands on Charlotte, Bob began as a program director and later served as Executive Director and Associate Director.

Bob received a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communications from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Bob is an upstate New York native, but has lived in Charlotte for almost 30 years. In his free time, he enjoys reading and studying cognitive psychology and quantum physics.
